MUSEUM NEWS

THE TOLEDO MUSEUM OF ART

FOUNDED BY EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY

WINTER 1957 New Series: Volume 1, Number 1

This is the first issue of the Museum News published since Number 159, Summer 1955. The New Series will be numbered by volume and issue, and will appear at irregular intervals.

MEMBERS, CHILDREN AND ART

For over 50 years, your Art Museum has maintained a program of free art education for children. Starting with a single class in the Museum's old home at 13th and Madison, the program has kept pace with the growth of the collections which today place the Museum among the top ten in this country.

During this period of growth standards have been kept high, both for works of art, and their educational use. To heighten the perceptions, to broaden the vision, to give new forms of expression to even one child—that is of great value to the community. To help a hundred children is of greater value. That is why the attendance of 147,610 children at your Museum during 1956 is of such importance to you and to every member of the community.

This program of free art education, open to all children, costs money—so much money that available Museum funds must be augmented. All funds derived from Museum Membership are used to help support the Museum's art education program.

Active Membership, open to all, costs, as it did in 1901, ten dollars a year. Increased costs, larger numbers of children, make necessary more generous contributions by a growing number of Members. Today, less than 1% of Toledo's population contributes through Museum Membership to a program which last year served a total child and adult attendance of 280,713.

In the early days of the Museum, Edward Drummond Libbey, the Museum's Founder, gave funds with the stipulation that they be matched by contributions from other Toledo residents. The pennies of Toledo school children helped to build this Museum, and Membership dollars have always helped maintain its programs. More Memberships and larger contributions will be needed if Toledo's increasing child population is not to be disappointed.

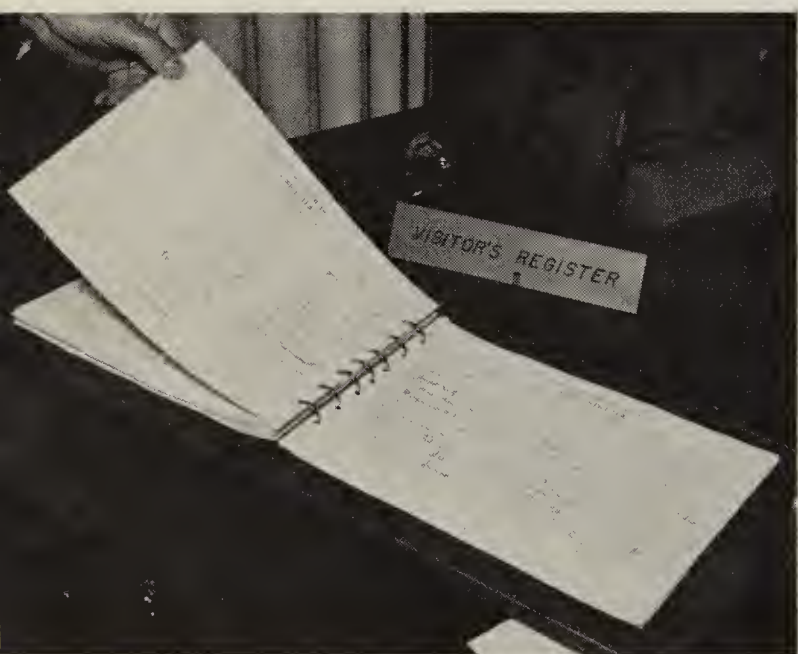

The pleasure and pride of creating your own work of art.

THE MUSEUM'S

ACCESSIONS. A variety of objects of art were added to the Museum's collections, including paintings, sculpture, prints, enamels, porcelains, glass, manuscripts, furniture, and textiles. All of these, like the lovely terra cotta angel created by an Italian artist about the time Columbus discovered America, enrich Toledo's cultural assets.

ATTENDANCE. To Toledoans, their Museum is a popular and friendly art center, and they proudly bring their guests to visit it. As foreign travel increases, the Museum's Register records visitors from more far away places. Included in this year's total attendance of 280,713 were residents of all 48 states, six Canadian provinces, and 48 foreign countries.

EXHIBITIONS. Twenty temporary exhibitions enlivened the Museum's program. Outstanding were the international premieres of the contemporary Swedish exhibit, Adventure in Glass (pictured at left), and Dutch Art 1946-1956; and the Masterpieces of German Drawing. Fourteen Toledo artists were featured in the Gallery 8 Exhibition Series.

GROWTH IN 1956

HOUSEKEEPING. Museum popularity results in ever-increasing maintenance costs. The Museum is closed only two days during the year. Snow must be removed, grass cut, floors swept, classrooms cleaned, galleries refurbished. Methods of careful scientific preservation are needed to maintain the Museum's priceless works of art. Costs rise as attendance increases and collections grow.

MUSIC. An attendance of 90,359 adults and children was recorded for concerts and other musical events. Children enjoyed afternoon Peristyle concerts such as that of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

Their elders enjoyed, in addition to the Museum's other regular concert series and the Toledo Orchestra concerts, a new and popular series, Jazz at the Peristyle.

ART FOR FUN. Many Toledoans—and their children—learn the joys of art as recreation. Both old and young enjoy creating their own art. Attendance of 70,062 in the School of Design, and of 60,028 at art educational activities, indicates there's nothing very exclusive about liking art in Toledo!

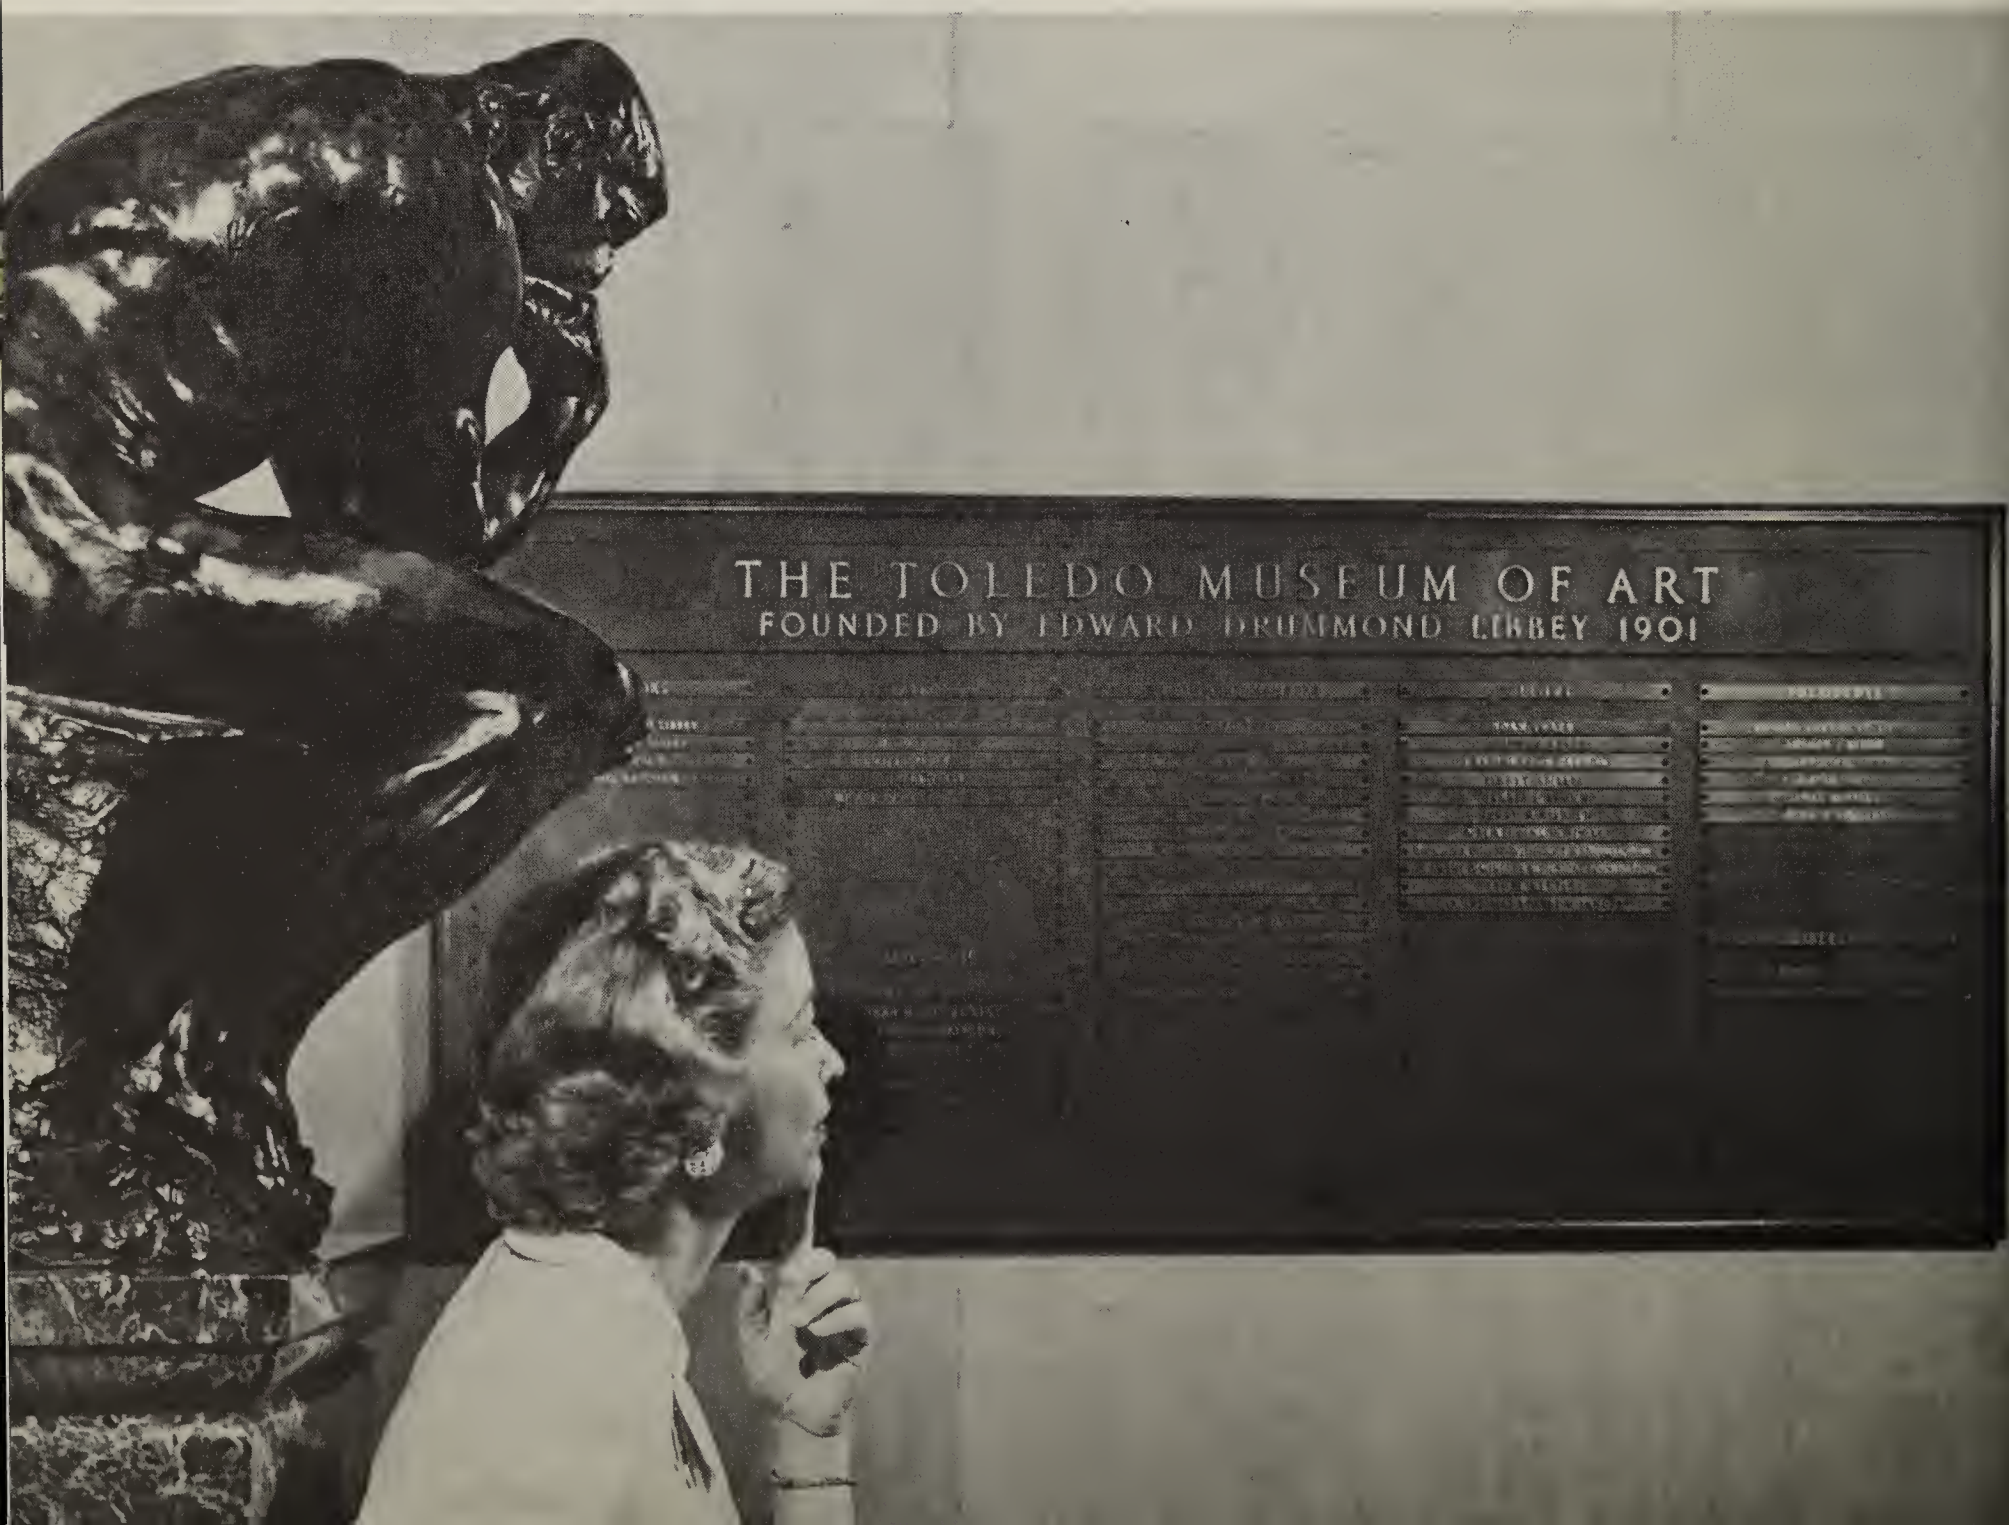

THE MUSEUM'S BEST FRIENDS

Now permanently recorded on the distinguished new bronze plaque near the Main Entrance are the names of those who by their substantial donations and administrative leadership have contributed to the growth of the Art Museum.

For years the Museum was chiefly supported by a few generous contributors. Those contributors are no longer with us. We who are now living have the responsibility—and the privilege—of maintaining for ourselves and our children the cultural heritage they left us.

Each year, through donations to the Museum's Endowment Fund, additional names appear on the honor roll of those who are providing for Toledo's cultural future. Others through additional gifts, move into higher classifications. A new generation has an opportunity to carry on.
